"HAVING FUN WHILE RAISING FUNDS"

KV PEACe

Kindervelt Psychiatric Emergency Assessment Center

VOLUME 15 ISSUE 5
November 2016

From the Division of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry

The commitment of Kindervelt to KV PEACe has provided the perfect forum to help spread awareness and break the stigma associated with mental health needs. We thank you for partnering with us to help provide education and support on a number of mental health needs. This month, we will explore identifying and reducing one of the potential stressors involved with poor mental health outcomes in youth – bullying.

Bullying: A repeated victimization (physical or emotional) of a person by another person or group. It can take many forms – physical, verbal, sexual, relational, and cyber.

Anyone who is perceived to be different than their peers may be a victim of bullying. It is not only viewed as an individual problem, but a community problem.

Up to 1 out of 3 students say they have been bullied at school. Since the introduction of social media and cell phone texting, now even feeling safe at home is at risk as cyber bullying can be publicly displayed 24/7.

Bullying is considered an Adverse Childhood Event that can contribute to changing a child's emotional, and mental health development, as well as academic achievement. Children who have been bullied may have increased moodiness or problems concentrating, higher rates of depression or anxiety, complain of body aches, and even miss school. Because it is often a repeated event, research is beginning to understand and explore how these chronic traumatic experiences can increase the risk of physical health problems even into adulthood.

In a 2016 study, our Division of Developmental and Behavioral Pediatrics psychologist Dr. Ryan Adams described how teens with Autism Spectrum Disorders have high rates of peer victimization in mainstream school settings, which leads to negative education outcomes.

Poor outcomes are also seen among the bullies themselves, having higher chance of being incarcerated, less likely to be employed or in a stable long-term relationship by the age of 30. Children with depression are 3 times more likely to bully other children. Perhaps a shift toward thinking there is no "bad child," to recognizing a kid has had bad things happen.

Children (and adults) who are bystanders or witness bullying often fall silent and indirectly participate.

Often the content of bullying can be so embarrassing or degrading that the youth may have a hard time telling someone directly. Youth may keep it private, feeling ashamed of or even responsible for what happened to them, or to avoid consequences that may restrict future social opportunities.

In an effort to turn the tide on America's bullying epidemic, Cincinnati Children's Hospital Medical Center through the support of Procter & Gamble's Secret Deodorant Mean Stinks anti-bullying initiative, developed the "Girls Guide to End Bullying." Under the direction of Dr. Ryan Adams, the "Girls Guide to End Bullying" is a web-based interactive curriculum for individual students, teachers or parents, that provide specific tips and advice to girls that they can easily apply to their lives, plus activities that enable them to better understand and overcome each type of bullying. The curriculum has statistically significant proven effectiveness to decrease the experiences of being bullied by 5 percent, with an 11 percent decrease for those girls who were experiencing high levels of bullying before curriculum exposure.

Community efforts are underway focusing on mentoring programs, school-based services, educational services, and workshops/seminars. There is national support to create highly effective programs that target this preventable adverse childhood event. Programs that focus on community connectedness – such as the Sandy Hook Promise, and The Resilience Project through the American Academy of Pediatrics.

For more information on the "Girls Guide to End Bullying" or other community efforts, please contact Sarah Sullivan by email at sarah.sullivan@cchmc.org.

From the President

With the start of the holiday season as we attend parties, exchange gifts, gather with friends, please take time to step back, reflect and give thanks.

We have many fun events to be thankful for this holiday season. Kindervelt Krafts will be held at both St Mary Church on November 5 and Cincinnati Children's Sabin Auditorium on November 16. The Kindervelt Gala / Masquerade Ball will take place November 11 at the Cooper Creek Event Center. These two city-wide events are just a sampling of activities taking place this month. Check out the Upcoming Events Calendar in this newsletter for the complete list of events and pick a few that sound fun. The best way to support Kindervelt is by promoting and attending these events and you'll have a great time doing it.

I would like to express my most sincere thanks to YOU, the members and supporters of Kindervelt. Every one of you has selflessly committed your time and energy to the betterment of Cincinnati Children's and the lives of children everywhere. We are fortunate that we have the opportunity to dedicate our time and energy to this worthwhile cause. Volunteering gives back so much more than what is asked.

I am so proud to be a part of such an inspirational group.

Have a wonderful Thanksgiving with your families and friends.

As we express our gratitude, we must never forget that the highest appreciation is not to utter words, but to live by them. ~John Fitzgerald Kennedy

I hope everyone is finishing up their Krafts and Baking for the St. Mary Kraft Show. If your group isn't a Krafting group, please come and bring your friends. We can always use help setting up on November 4th and the day of the Show, November 5th.

New this year at Gala:

All bidding will be done through your cell phone or computer!!!

<https://e.gesture.com/events/55B/>

How does it work?

You can access the site now to view our sponsors, make a donation, preview live and silent auction items, and bid on silent auction items.

To register, please visit the link listed above and follow the directions. You must register in order to bid. On November 11th, the night of the event, we will have Gesture staff there to help you check in, answer any questions throughout the evening, and assist you with check out.

The bidding process is fun and convenient because you can set a limit for items you plan on making a bid and if someone out bids you, you will get a notification on your phone via text message. You then have the choice to raise your bid or not. Once bidding closes at the end of the event, you will know if you won any items. If you win, you will receive a text that you have won the item.

You will receive a receipt with all the items you purchased, donations you made and games you played. In order to check out, you show one of the Gesture staff your paid receipt on your phone and your items will be given to you.

Happy bidding and hope to see everyone at the Gala!

Gratitudes

KV #22 - Special thanks to Connie Bergen, Membership Chairman, for completing our annual directory.

KV #3 - A big shout out to our very own, Suzanne Schweller, for her enthusiastic work in getting the Second Story Auction up and running, along with St. Mary Church hosting the KV Kraft show on November 5th! Thanks Suzanne!

KV #8 - Thank you to Ruth Morley and Laurie Gorby (despite being a bit under the weather) for chairing our Wyoming Fall Festival booth. And thanks to the KV#8 members who gave their time to staff the booth. We had a record number of children ride the trackless train this year, and it was a great opportunity to tell the community about this month's Kindervelt North Pole Express!

Applause!

KV #56 - Would like to send out more kudos to our ladies on the successful evening of Boo Bunco. Our group provided delicious snacks, soups and desserts for a great group of ladies who have been coming for many years now. We netted $1800.00 and are grateful for everyone's continuing contributions and support.

KV #16 - Super! We did great at the 1st Kindervelt Kraft sale at Children's Hospital. Thanks to everyone who contributed all the wonderful items and bakery goods. A special thanks to Sandy Keeney for all her work organizing the sale and to Nancy and Sandy for working the event that day. Keep up the good work, ladies! We've got two more events!

KV #55 - Triple Crown, hosted a fun Chili Cook-off on September 24 at the Triple Crown Country Club. We had 15 local residents compete for the Chili Cook-Off crown entertained by a great rock cover band, The Quack. The event raised close to $12,000!!

Tidbits

KV #56 - Sends our congratulations to Terri and Jim Mitsch on the happy occasion of the birth of their second grandson, Austin Thomas. He was born in July to their daughter, Michelle and husband, Chris Canfield. He joins older brother, Garrett (2) and lives with his family in Cold Spring, Ky. Congratulations to all!

KV #8 - would like to extend a warm welcome to our three new members Eileen Harmon, Becky Karns, and Kelly Mahle. Eileen is retired and enjoys cycling and travelling. Becky is a psychiatrist who moved here from Scranton, PA with her husband, Evan, and 6-year-old stepdaughter, Alice. And Kelly grew up in Wyoming and has returned here to raise her first-grade daughter. We are delighted to have all three of you and look forward to getting to know you better!

KV #77 - Happy birthday to our group President, Carol Zacher, and to Mary Lytle and Mary Jo Hoffman!

KV #8 - Welcome to Samuel Charles Myer, born Oct. 21, new grandson of Ginny and Chuck Myer.

More Group News...

KV #19 had a successful fundraiser at the new Kendra Scott store at Liberty Center on October 13. The company plans "Kendra Gives Back" shopping parties at the store and generously donated 20% of the sales from the party to our Kindervelt. Thank you to all who came out and shopped, had a good time and supported Kindervelt.

KV #57 had loads of fun working the Queen Bee! The annual half-marathon was Oct. 8; it was the group's second year of monitoring road conditions and cheering on runners/walkers as they approached Mt. Lookout square. The pic of Judi Nekolny's daughter speaks for itself (it was a chilly morning).

KV #22 hosted our annual 'Soup N Salad' night in October. Fresh salads, delicious soups and festive desserts were shared prior to the business meeting. Always a great turnout, though some members were camera shy!

Let the Good Times Bowl!

Kindervelt of Cincinnati Children's Helping kids "one pin at a time"

LET THE GOOD TIMES BOWL!

Winter in southern Ohio is a great time for indoor activities.
What better way to spend a cold, snowy day than bowling while supporting a good cause.

Kindervelt's 5th Annual Citywide event "Let the Good Times Bowl" will take place on Saturday, February 25, 2017 at Axis Alley on the Levee in Newport, Kentucky.

This event is organized by Kindervelt, the largest auxiliary at Cincinnati Children's, to support The Kindervelt Psychiatric Emergency Assessment Center (KV PEACe) in the Emergency Department. KV
PEACe is intended to improve the comprehensive assessment, care and support of mental health patients in emergency situations.

Bowlers of all levels are welcome. Simply organize a team of six friends, family members or coworkers for two hours of friendly bowling competition. Lane cost is $300 for a team of six (6).

Every bowler will receive a "Let the Good Times Bowl" t-shirt, and a ticket for one complimentary soft drink. Each team will have a Team Captain who will be the main contact for information from the bowling committee.

Bowling sessions are 3:00 - 5:00 P.M., and 6:00 to 8:00 P.M. Check in begins at 2:30 for the first session and 5:30 for the second session.

Deadline for registration is February 10, 2017. Registrations received after the 10th are not guaranteed T-shirts.

There will be several raffle drawings which will run through both sessions. The winners will be drawn at the conclusion of the 2nd session. Split-the-pot and door prize drawings will be held during each individual session.

Teams can register online at www.kindervelt.org or mail registration to the address below.

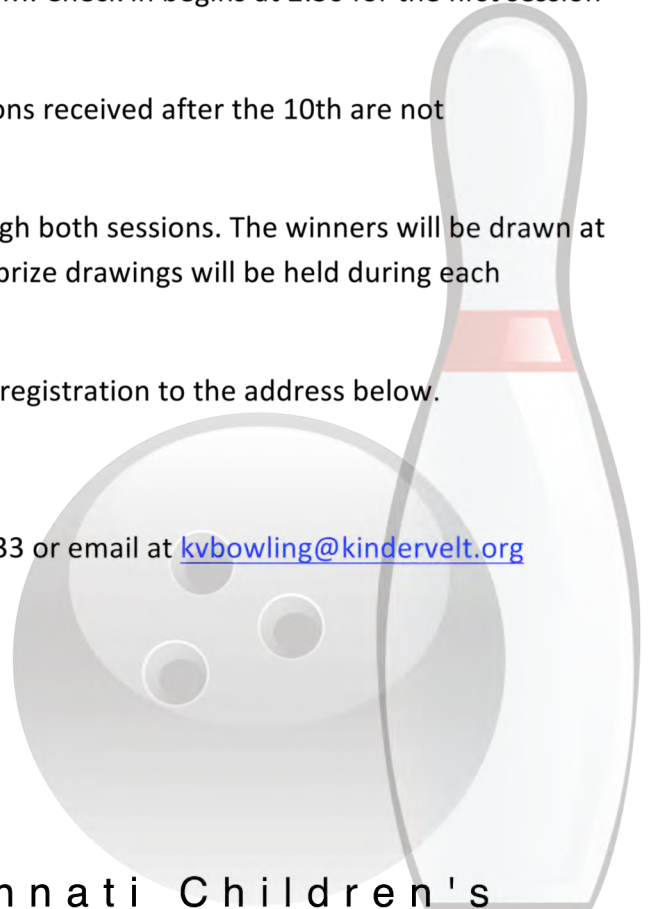

Please review the enclosed packet for more details.
