Kindervelt Psychiatric Emergency Assessment Center

Personal Thanks from Alyssa Smith and her mom, Shanda

VOLUME 15 ISSUE 6
December 2016

The Kindervelt Psychiatric Emergency Assessment Center has at least two big fans – Alyssa Smith and her mom, Shanda.

"We're so excited to have something like this in the emergency department," says Shanda. "Having a child in the middle of a mental health crisis is overwhelming enough without adding in the chaos of the emergency room on top of it. This will help a lot of kids and their families when they need it most."

Alyssa has struggled with her mental health since she was just 3 years old, when she would have intense mood swings, erratic behavior and issues with sleeping. Her parents searched for answers and finally found a psychiatrist who helped them get a handle on Alyssa's mental health.

By the time she was in kindergarten, however, Alyssa's mental health issues began to worsen. In second grade, she was admitted as an inpatient at Cincinnati Children's for psychiatric care.

"She was an inpatient twice that year," Shanda remembers. "All in all, she's been an inpatient at Cincinnati Children's eight times."

While Alyssa receives her regular counseling outside of Cincinnati Children's, her inpatient stays help her to use her coping skills and reinforce what she's learned to help her manage her condition.

Today, Alyssa is 12 years old – nearly 13 – and is in middle school. Her favorite subjects are Spanish and geography, and she's currently writing three different books. She's also an avid amateur photographer, thanks to the Patiently Made program at Cincinnati Children's.

What's more – Alyssa's experiences have made her a vocal and strong advocate for kids with mental health problems.

"She believes she has to tell her story so that other people know they're not alone," says Shanda. "She doesn't want anyone to feel lonely or like they're the only ones in the world dealing with these issues."

At school, Alyssa extends her advocacy and love of helping people to volunteering as a peer tutor for kids with multiple special needs. "She's extremely empathetic," Shanda smiles. "Helping others helps her, too. It makes me so proud of her."

For both Shanda and Alyssa, Cincinnati Children's has been an important partner in Alyssa's journey – and the Kindervelt PEACe project will make that partnership even stronger.

"We're so grateful to Kindervelt's amazing donors who make this much needed space possible," says Shanda. "Having a dedicated, supportive place for kids in a mental health crisis within the emergency room not only helps these children and their families through a scary time, but it helps save lives."

From the President

The holiday season is upon us and our focus turns to family, friends and loved ones. Spending time together is what makes the holidays so special. In this time of celebration, please take time to reflect on your commitment to the Kindervelt family. We are a diverse wide-spread group with a common cause...to help children. This is something every one of us should be thankful for and proud of.

I am thrilled to say that Kindervelt Gala and Kindervelt Krafts were both huge successes. Thank you to all three chairs, Kathy Roth, Kristin Rose, and Bonnie Heuneman, for putting their heart and soul into these events. I have heard nothing but positive remarks on both. We are very fortunate to have such talented dedicated Kindervelt members to take on these projects. Thank you, too, to every group that participated by supplying baked goods, craft items, silent auction items and so much more. Together we can do so much!

On behalf of the City Board of Trustees and myself, we wish you and your families the most joyous holiday season and a happy healthy new year.

Kindervelt Krafts

I would like to thank the Kraft Committee and all the Kraft Reps for a job well done. We have finished the the Kraft Show, our two mini Kraft and Bakery sales and the Gala Bake sale. This couldn't have been possible without the help of a very good committee, wonderful Kraft Reps and the support of the Kindervelt members for all their hard work. Everyone went one step beyond to make the First Kindervelt Krafts a success!

A special thank you to Kathy Roth and Kristin Rose for all their support in making the transition of the Kraft Show and Gala go so smoothly.

Ready, Get Set, Gala!!

41ST ANNUAL KINDERVELT GALA
FACING MENTAL HEALTH

Masquerade Ball

Dear members of Kindervelt,

Thank you so very much for your support of the 41st annual Gala. We truly appreciate your support and inspiration, as Gala became a stand-alone event. You pushed us to think outside the box to include online bidding with Gesture, to promote Kindervelt and our mission on morning television programs, and to increase our visibility through social media on Facebook and Instagram.

Our Champion Speaker, Alyssa Smith, gave a heartfelt story of her history with anxiety mental illness. The support of CCHMC and her family have guided her thus far and KV PEACe will benefit so many children like her who enter the doors of CCHMC.

Special thanks go out to Clear Arc as our corporate sponsor and KV President, Tracy Smith, for her guidance and encouragement. We look forward to 2017 as we pass the 'truck keys' to Diana Scrimmizi and her Steering Committee for next year's gala.

We are grateful for our Steering Committee who gave more than 100% in planning to transform Cooper Creek to an exciting Masquerade Ball featuring an open bar, Mask on/off game, auction and raffle items, and not to forget the Second Wind Band that transported us onto the dance floor to celebrate Kindervelt and KV PEACe.

With humble regards,

Kathy Roth and Kristin Rose

Gratitudes

KV #68 - Many thanks to Diana Peters & Pat Wahl for being our Kindervelt Krafts, Bakery & Gala Reps. Great teamwork, KV #68 in donating to Bucket of Cheer & American Girl Doll Raffles, as well as buying and selling chances, crafting, baking & volunteering to work. KV #68 appreciates all the friends and family who also contributed donations to Krafts, Bakery, Gala & Raffles.

KV #78 - A heartfelt "thank you" goes out to all the members of our group who baked, crafted, sewed, painted, glued, or helped in any way with getting our crafts ready for the Kindervelt Krafts events. As always, we owe special gratitude to Mary Beth Young and Nancy Morton who lead our efforts. Mary Beth not only comes up with ideas, sews her heart out, and teaches the rest of us what to do, but also opens her home to our fall crafting and group meetings. Thanks also to our members, their spouses, children, and friends who supported and attended Gala. A fun time was had by all!

KV #8 - Many, many thanks to Ruth Morley (chairman) and the elves on her committee for their hard work and never ending enthusiasm in orchestrating this year's North Pole Express fundraiser! Ruth, we are so grateful for the years you have chaired this event – your energy, ideas, and willingness to do anything and everything have been invaluable. We would also like to express our appreciation to all the KV#8 members (and their families!) who braved the cold and blustery day (and various kinds of precipitation) and all who contributed to another successful year!

Applause!

KV #68 - Congratulations to Bonnie Hueneman on a job well done as this year's chair of Kindervelt Krafts & Bakery.

KV #16 - Congratulations to our entire group for this past month's fund raisers -- Bunco, Bake sale, American Girl doll clothes, and Kraft sales from all the venues. You've done a marvelous job of "raising funds, while having fun" at every event. It's so easy when everyone contributes however they can.

KV #22 - The women of KV22 give a SHOUT OUT to the Gala 2016 co-chairs, Kathy Roth and Kristin Rose! We are pleased to have you represent us on the Steering Committee for Gala. You did an OUTSTANDING job with your Steering Committee and we are thrilled to have you back after some much needed downtime! Cheers!

Tidbits

KV #78 - We are happy to welcome back to Kindervelt two wonderful ladies who used to belong to the Clermont County group, and are now rejoining as "Eastsiders" -- Ann Friedmann and Lisa Robison. Welcome to our group, ladies! We are thrilled to have you!

KV #8 - Survivor League Update - The competition for first place is heating up as we enter the last 5 games of the regular season. The league of 43 participants is now down to 4 that are still alive heading into week 12. The challenge will increase as each winning team is removed from the list that is available for the survivors to choose. The chance for upsets increasing. We should have a winner soon. Good Luck and pick wisely!

KV #8 - Also, now that College Basketball is underway, a reminder that we will be hosting the March Madness Bracket Tournament again this year.

KV #57 - We had a great time selling Bean Soup at the Landen Craft Show, November 19th. Here is Nancy Gerstner, our Soup Guru, promoting the deliciousness!

KV #19 - Plans are well underway for Lunch at the Links on April 29, 2017. Our theme is New York, New York and the ladies have been working away on fun, new things to have at the luncheon! Just a reminder that we will be having our Annual Christmas Party on Wednesday, December 14, at 7:00 at Jackie's house at 4478 Maxwell Drive. Everyone is asked to bring a wrapped, $20 gift for the gift exchange....which is always a ton of fun. Also please bring an appetizer or dessert to share and the wine will be provided! An additional reminder email will be sent prior to the party. Be sure to let Jackie know if you will be there!

KV #50 - On Monday, November 14, the Ladies of Kindervelt 50 hosted an exclusive fashion show and luncheon featuring the Best of Saks Fifth Avenue. Chrissie Blatt Creative and Saks Fifth Avenue transformed Kenwood Country Club into a high-end fashion house. A crowd of over 275 Kindervelt supporters shopped, mingled and raised funds for the Kindervelt Psychiatric Emergency Assessment Center at Cincinnati Children's Hospital Medical Center.

KV #12 - Congratulations to Kathy Sherlock! She won the Grand Raffle, Holiday Tub of Cheer, at Kindervelt Gala, November 11!

KV #8 18th Annual Kindervelt North Pole Express

Families, large and small, turned out for KV#8's 18th annual Kindervelt North Pole Express on Saturday, Nov. 19, in Lebanon, Ohio. Despite the brisk weather, many donned pajamas, replicating the train experience in book that inspired this event, The Polar Express.

With gloves protecting little hands, many children took the time to visit our letter-writing station and deposit their special postcard into the direct-to-Santa mailbox.

The crowning glory was individual time for each child with Santa Claus, who presented the young riders one of his sleigh bells.

On board the train, the riders were entertained with a rendition of the famous book, The Polar Express, and joined the lively singing of holiday carols.

Good Times Bowl!

Kindervelt of Cincinnati Children's Helping kids "one pin at a time"

LET THE GOOD TIMES BOWL!

Winter in southern Ohio is a great time for indoor activities.
What better way to spend a cold, snowy day than bowling while supporting a good cause.

Kindervelt's 5th Annual Citywide event "Let the Good Times Bowl" will take place on Saturday, February 25, 2017 at Axis Alley on the Levee in Newport, Kentucky.

This event is organized by Kindervelt, the largest auxiliary at Cincinnati Children's, to support The Kindervelt Psychiatric Emergency Assessment Center (KV PEACe) in the Emergency Department. KV
PEACe is intended to improve the comprehensive assessment, care and support of mental health patients in emergency situations.

Bowlers of all levels are welcome. Simply organize a team of six friends, family members or coworkers for two hours of friendly bowling competition. Lane cost is $300 for a team of six (6).

Every bowler will receive a "Let the Good Times Bowl" t-shirt, and a ticket for one complimentary soft drink. Each team will have a Team Captain who will be the main contact for information from the bowling committee.

Bowling sessions are 3:00 - 5:00 P.M., and 6:00 to 8:00 P.M. Check in begins at 2:30 for the first session
