Internet Safety for Children

Regina Vogt-Purdon, LISW-S
Cincinnati Children's Hospital

There is an alarming trend of seemingly innocent online children's videos switching midway through to disturbing content. The content involves challenges related to self-harm and suicide. (The current most well-known of these trends is known as the "Momo challenge," in which a woman with bulging eyes blackmails the viewer into completing dangerous acts.) Though more publicized now than ever before because of social media, life-threatening challenges have existed for decades. While most people may believe it's common sense to ignore challenges having to do with ingesting laundry detergent pods, eating spoonful of cinnamon, or even committing suicide, children's brains are not equipped with the decision-making capability to make safe choices. (Some research shows that the brain is not fully developed until almost age 30.) It's important to have regular conversations with your children about the content they are viewing online. Consider setting parental controls on the content your children are able to view. Lastly, excessive "screen time" in general has been linked with an increase in mental health concerns in children. Make access to electronics a privilege that children have to earn by demonstrating positive behavior, or set a timer so that children have an audible indicator that their screen time is up for the day.

From the President

Happy Spring! Looking at the Projects Calendar for April and May, we have events popping up everywhere. It's our last push before the Annual Meeting next month. We have fashion shows, raffles, cabarets, luncheons and Buncos, just to mention a few. All of these events greatly support KV PEACe so I hope you can plan to attend a few of them.

The final Member Meeting is Tuesday, April 2. I think you will be interested in the information presented by Dr. Sorter on anxiety and depression. We will also enjoy delicious food and door prizes. If you have not yet signed up, you are still welcome to attend. It promises to be a great evening beginning with a happy hour from 6:00 PM to 7:00 PM followed by our main speaker. The meeting will be held at Sabin Hall in Liberty Township. I hope to see everyone there!

We also have our Annual Dinner coming up. Make sure you mark your calendars for May 15. Our dinner/meeting will be held at the Cincinnati Women's Club. Pat Wahl is planning an exciting evening at which we will do the following: hear from the Division of Adolescent Psychiatry and KV PEACe, recognize members of 20, 30 and 40 years, present the Barbara Fitch Award, induct the 2019-20 Board of Trustees, and present the check to the Division of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry. Please try your best to attend this important evening.

April is National Volunteer Month. I have never met so many dedicated, caring and hardworking women in my life. I'm so proud of each and every one of you, and I can't thank you enough for your loving hearts. Thank you all for EVERYTHING you do for Kindervelt!

TidBits From Members

Our thoughts go out to KV#8 members Robin Dunkin-Chadwick, Abby Ridenour, and Stephanie Hass who are currently facing health challenges with family members.

KV22 had a special outing at the Blue Ash Dream Dinners coordinated by our own, Stephanie Janssen. A little wine, a little snack, some spices, veggies and proteins and we walked away with meals for the week and a gift for KV!

Thanks

Kindervelt #56 would like to send out a special thank you to Carolyn Riehle for her continued craft expertise. She opens her home for craft sessions all year long. The Eastsiders recently assembled take-away bags for the residents of Ronald McDonald House, an effort we make every year about this time. SPECIAL THANKS to our members for their Sunshine Fund donations which were used to purchase treats for the bags; to Mary Beth Young for shopping for the items; to the ladies that attended the March meeting who put the bags together; and to Jill Guenther who delivered them to the Ronald McDonald House. We received this lovely thank-you note confirming our donations are greatly appreciated by the families of the patients who were able to “grab and go” with some nutritious treats before and during those long days at the hospital.
