"Together We Can Make A Difference"

KV PEACe

Kindervelt Psychiatric Emergency Assessment Center

Volume 20 Issue 9
June 2020

From the President

Usually this issue of the newsletter each year highlights the fun we had at the Annual Meeting with pictures from the grand reveal of the check amount and comments from the division doctor accepting the check. Unfortunately, due to COVID-19, the Annual Meeting didn't happen, but I do have great news...

YOU CAN JOIN US VIRTUALLY FOR THE CHECK PRESENTATION

AND ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE NEW DIVISION!!

The event will be held on Friday, June 19, 2020 at 11:00 a.m.

Click on the link below to watch a live stream of the event from CCHMC:

Link: <https://cchmcstream.cchmc.org/MediasiteEX/Play/08511390c2d34e2d8b4d14550b27abc91d>

Please spread the word and join us from the comfort of your home, office, or vacation site. While we wish we could have this grand event in person, we are so pleased that the hospital is allowing us to do it virtually given the current circumstances. Many thanks to Keith Henize, the Development Office, and the doctors and staff at CCHMC that worked together to make this virtual presentation possible. We will have access to the video after the presentation for members that cannot watch it live.

We are working on securing a date and making arrangements to hold a Member Meeting/Annual Meeting in September where we can acknowledge our members for their years of service, present the Barbara Fitch Award to a deserving member, and acknowledge the unbelievable dedication and service that Bonnie Hueneman provided during her two years in office. We can then learn all about the new division and continue on with our fundraising. It's always amazing what we end up doing each year and no virus can stop us from continuing this tradition.

I'm excited to be serving as City President for the next two years. Kindervelt is my philanthropic passion and I'm happy to be sharing it with you in this capacity.

I hope to "see" everyone on June 19th. Have a great summer and I hope to SEE everyone in September.

Self-Injury Awareness Regina Vogt-Purdon, LISW-S

Self-injury or “cutting” is the intentional physical harming of one’s body to manage undesirable emotions, but with no intent to die. Of all age groups, self-harming is most prevalent among teenagers. While self-harming is typically not suicidal in nature, it still poses a concern for safety depending on the severity of the self-harm. Here are some ways you can help a child or teen that you care for who self-harms:

- 1.) Do not punish the child. Many children and teens who self-harm already feel ashamed.
- 2.) If the self-harming results in injury requiring medical attention, call your child’s pediatrician or take the child to the nearest emergency room.
- 3.) If the child is not already connected with a mental health therapist, help foster that connection. The Psychiatric Intake Response Center at Cincinnati Children’s Hospital (513-636-4124) is available to provide crisis support as well as referrals for mental health treatment.
- 4.) Discuss the child’s self-harming behavior with his or her therapist. The therapist will help the child determine what need the self-harm is fulfilling and develop replacement coping skills to meet that same need. Ask the therapist what you can do to help support the child in using the replacement coping skills.

A special thank you to Tracy Smith, Cindy Metz, Kathy Raabe, Karen Geeves, Karen Griffith, Tammy Booth, Sue Hammel, Kathy Sherlock, Glenda DeJesus, Gail Courtney-Shaw and Kathy Raabe for making masks for the community of Children's Hospital. The doctors had asked Kindervelt to help keep their neighbors safe. Kindervelt members and friends did just that. Within a week they had spent over 150 hours sewing and delivered over 300 masks to Children's. Thank you, ladies. You're AWESOME!

Ladies of KV#3, thank you so much for the wonderful flowers. It has been a pleasure and privilege to be your president for the past three years. I know Valerie Taylor will do a great job going forward. Please stay safe and well; my fingers are crossed we can be together in the fall.

Our thoughts and prayers to Kris Spencer on the passing of her sister in law.

KV #78 sends happy birthday wishes to Sheila Maxwell (June 10) and Nancy Riedel (June 22).

KV #56 sends our best to all our members as we travel through these days of uncertainty with all the corona virus issues.

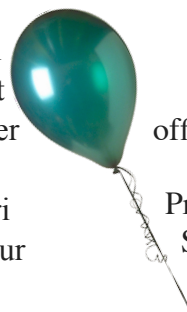

Please stay well, enjoy your families and any home and yard projects on your radar. Keep thinking of ways to continue your support of CCHMC.

We would like to suggest a silent fundraiser for your group. An easy way to do this is to send email invites to members and ask for a monetary gift in lieu of your Spring/Summer fundraisers. Your treasurer can collect donations and forward them on to the City Treasurer.

Have a safe summer!

A Great Deal of Gratitude

KV #16 would like to extend a huge "Thank You" to Lin Wolf for her past role as President and now Vice-President and welcome Cindy Burger who has generously accepted her new position as President for KV #16. Additional "thank you's" to Linda Deters, Cece Kohlman, Karla Sargent, Terri Skogland and Sandy Stadtmiller for accepting positions in our group so that "together we can make a difference"!

KV #8 wishes to thank officers for 2019-2020: Becky Karns, Lindsey Dye, Jill Prendergast, Shelly O'Neill, Stephanie Haas and Abby Ridenour.

KV News

KV #19 would like to send "Get Well" wishes to our dear members Rita Keim and Jackie Quigley.

KV #19 has postponed our event, The Heritage Regatta, Lunch at the Links, until it is safe for our community to gather. We hope you can still join us when the time is safe. In the meantime, we would appreciate your support by taking a look and buying tickets for our luxury raffle. This year we are raffling a beautiful David Yurman Cushion Link Bracelet with Blue Sapphires and a pair of Sterling Silver Crossover Collection earrings. Retail Value $900. It was generously donated by James Free Jewelers. Raffle tickets are only $20.00. You can contact Jeanne Reisinger at reisinger.jr@gmail.com if you are interested.

KV #22 would like to share our deepest condolences to Kate Moody. Kate's mom passed away last month at the age of 95.

KV #22 members have been baking, gardening and walking. Graduation, Mother's Day celebrations and close of the school year have looked different this year for a multitude of reasons. Wishing all our friends and family a safe summer and we hope to be together in the fall!
