National Depression Screening and Bullying Prevention Month

Regina Vogt-Purdon, LISW-S

October is National Depression Screening and Bullying Prevention Month. In children and teens, depression and bullying often go hand-in-hand. Children who are bullied are more likely to experience depression, even to the point of having thoughts of suicide. It is important that caregivers ask children regularly if they are being bullied or if they, themselves, are bullying other children. Furthermore, it's essential to monitor for changes in children's behavior that may indicate depression, such as:

- Loss of interest in pleasurable activities
- Increased irritability
- Trouble with concentration and memory
- Tiredness and loss of energy
- Increase or decrease in sleep or appetite
- Complaints of unexplained body aches and headaches
- Social isolation
- Decline in school performance
- Less attention to personal hygiene or appearance

Studies show that asking children if they're having thoughts of suicide does not increase the likelihood of attempted suicide; rather, it fosters an open dialogue with children to help caregivers connect them with mental health supports. If you are concerned that a child you love is experiencing depression, please call Children's Hospital's Psychiatric Intake Response Center (513-636-4124) for resources.

From the President

Fall is in full swing; it's my favorite time of the year! Kindervelt members have hit the ground running, beginning with the September Leadership Meeting. Our groups have had their first meetings and reacquainted with their Kindervelt friends. Hopefully, some new members will pop up in every group!

Our Speakers Series (formally Member Meeting) is Wednesday, October 16, from 6:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. at The Red Cross Building (2111 Dana Avenue). Our Speaker, Gail Rizzo, is a Cincinnati Children's clinical counselor, based in the Lakota School District. She will be speaking on "Family Mental Health: Signs and Symptoms of Common Mental Health Issues." Please try to invite a friend as it will be very informative about our mission and help explain what Kindervelt is. Hopefully, Gail can help answer some questions and explain to parents or grandparents some signs for which to be on the lookout.

The Kindervelt Halloween Party is Friday, October 25, 2019. It will be held at the Phoenix. The committee has done a fabulous job planning a spooky and entertaining evening for us. Please bring some friends to have a great time!

We also have Kindervelt Krafts coming up. This big event, open to the public, will be held November 2, at Seton High School (3901 Glenway Avenue). There will also be two additional shows at the hospital for employees and patients' families. The Kraft Committee will be at Findlay Market in December; they will sell the leftover crafts and spread the word of Kindervelt.

I'm looking forward to a very busy and successful fall with all of you. Thank you so much for all that you do!

TOGETHER, WE CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE,

Bonnie Hueneman

City President

'I can do things you cannot, you can do things I cannot; together we can do great things'

-Mother Teresa

Tidbits

KV #78 has started their series of Krafting workshops in preparation for Krafts Season. Thanks to Katrina Smith for hosting, and for all the members who are contributing their time. It is truly a labor of love, and we are excited for the selling to begin!

KROHN CONSERVATORY

KV #78 will be hosting a holiday craft-making event at Krohn Conservatory on Sunday, November 17, from 10am-3pm, as part of their holiday show. We will have a few different holiday crafts for children to choose from, for a $5 donation. If you plan to go to the show, stop by and see us in the art room off the Bonsai corridor.

KV #78 gives a shout out to member Lynn Johnson on her marriage to Christopher Breda last July 20. Long life and much happiness, Lynn and Chris!

KV #12, Lebanon Lambs, hosted an afternoon at Ambassador's Antiques in downtown Lebanon last Saturday.

One of our members, Roxanne Cash, knits baby clothing that was sold with 50 percent of the sales coming to our group.

KV #8 would like to thank Teresa Lange, Publicity Chair, and Lindsey Dye, Secretary, for their service the past few years.

We wish to welcome the new officers for 2019-20, Ginny Myer and Sherry Weckenbrock, co-presidents, Becky Karns, vice-president, Jill Prendergast, Treasurer, Shelly O'Neill, Projects, and Abby Ridenour and Stephanie Haas, Publicity.

We are also pleased to announce that KV #8 has a new member this year, Sally Sackett.

KV #22 is hosting their annual Soup N Salad night on October 8th! A delicious meal, social and a brief meeting.

KV #22 wishes happiness to Kate and Doug Moody in welcoming their granddaughter!

Speaker Series sponsored by Kindervelt of Cincinnati Children's Hospital. Held at the Red Cross Building on October 16, 2019 6:00 to 8:30, 2111 Dana Ave Cincinnati, OH.

October's topic is behavioral change and signs to watch for if your child or grandchild is struggling and how you can help. For more information:
